Ghostly goings-on....

This October sees the return of our popular St Neots ghost walks and the launch of a new book about paranormal activity in Huntingdonshire. The book is launched in St Neots with a talk and book signing by the author, Mark Egerton when he will be revealing some of the haunting stories in the new book. Mark will also be leading a one-off Ghost Walk in St Neots on the night of Halloween itself when spirits are said to cross more easily into the world of the living. Our normal monthly ghost walks will continue during the winter months, see below for details.
